Create an Indeed account

If you don't already have an Indeed account, type go.indeed.com/account in your browser's address bar.

Next, enter your email and a password, then click "Create Account."

The screenshot shows the 'Create an Account (it's free)' page on Indeed. At the top is the Indeed logo. Below it, the title 'Create an Account (it's free)' is displayed. There are two social login options: 'Sign in with Google' with the Google logo and 'Sign in with Facebook' with the Facebook logo. A horizontal line with the word 'or' in the center separates these from the standard login fields. The 'Email Address' field is a rectangular input box. Below it is the 'Password' field, also a rectangular input box. Under the password field is a checkbox labeled 'Keep me signed in on this device.' Below these fields is a large blue button with the text 'Create Account' in white. At the bottom of the form, there is a small text block stating: 'By creating an account, you agree to Indeed's Terms of Service, Cookie Policy and Privacy Policy. You consent to receiving marketing messages from Indeed and may opt out from receiving such messages by following the unsubscribe link in our messages, or as detailed in our terms.' Below the form, there are three links: 'Have an account? Sign In', 'Forgot Your Password?', and 'Help Center'.

Improving 100 homes for military veterans

Habitat for Humanity and Wells Fargo have teamed up for a yearlong effort to improve the homes of veterans in nearly 30 communities across the U.S.

Wells Fargo recently announced a yearlong national effort to improve 100 homes for military veterans in partnership with Habitat for Humanity. The home improvements will occur in nearly 30 communities across the United States as part of a $300,000 commitment to Habitat for Humanity. From 2010 to 2017, the Wells Fargo Housing Foundation donated more than $44 million to Habitat for Humanity locally and nationally.
